

CubeFlickr is a repository of CubeWorld 3D panorama photos for iphone/ipod touch. Newest 100 panoramas in equirectangular pool of Flickr are available at the following URL. CubeWorld is now available in App Store for free, without jailbreaking.

- <http://vitrite.chem.nagoya-u.ac.jp/i/100.xml> CubeFlickr repository for iphone/ipod touch. 10/20/50 /100 newest panos by modifying the URL.
- <http://www.cubeworld.org/iphone/plist.xml> Repository to get cubeworld.app.
- <http://www.cubeworld.org> CubeWorld site.
- <http://www.marcogiorgini.com/> Developer's site.

You can contribute to CubeFlickr by posting your equirectangular images (complanated spherical panorama) to Flickr, adding the tag "equirectangular", and setting the Creative commons license with permission to derivative works.

For the PangeaVR freaks, another repository is also available:

<http://citroenists.net/e.xml>

(These xml files will be unified in the near future.)

Enjoy!
